

2019 Johnson Institute Exemplary Leadership Award

Maxwell King, President and CEO, The Pittsburgh Foundation and
Grant Oliphant, President, The Heinz Endowments

March 21, 2019

8:30-10:30 a.m.

University Club, Ballroom A

The Johnson Institute is honoring philanthropic leaders Max King and Grant Oliphant for their strategic, innovative, and transformational leadership. Individually and in collaboration they have consistently invested in human capital, equal opportunity, diversity, and civil discourse. In addition, Max and Grant have demonstrated courageous leadership, locally and nationally, in advocating for social justice and marginalized populations. Their philanthropic leadership has had a lasting positive impact on our region and the nation.